

ETHICAL CHARTER

LOUIS MOULIN ethical charter sets out the individual and collective rules of conduct that must define our actions and inspire our choices in order to make our values and commitments a reality on a day-to-day basis. This ethical charter is also the embodiment of an ambition for continuous improvement in order to go further in our approach to corporate social responsibility.

As a LOUIS MOULIN employee, we must ensure that our attitude upholds the integrity and reputation of our company.

Our ethical charter formulates the commitments to be kept and the rules to be respected on a day-to-day basis in our work relationships with our stakeholders:

With EMPLOYEES:

Joint commitments:

- Share our corporate values and keep our commitments
- Comply with work contracts
- Have respectful relationships between all employees: politeness, courtesy, sociability
- Take action on a day-to-day basis to reduce our ecological footprint

The company's commitments to its employees:

- Distribution of necessary information to employees and development of internal communication
- Empower employees to work safely
- Implement mechanisms for listening to employees
- Adopt responsible management practices: listening, gratitude, empowerment, right to make mistakes, support
- Reject all forms of discrimination and promoting professional integration
- Offer regular training to staff
- Ensure the secrecy of personal information held by the company about employees
- Promote versatility and the acquisition of new skills by taking into account employees' expectations
- Raise awareness among employees of the need to comply with ethical rules and sanction non-compliance if necessary
